DETAILED ACTION

The Examiner regrets that the following rejection was not presented earlier.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 6-9, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 6, is directed toward a computer readable storage medium having an instruction stream for each of a plurality of threads that instruct a computer system to perform operations. However the instruction stream is not embodied in a manner to be executable. The computer readable storage medium having an instruction does not tie the instructions in a way for the instruction to be accessed by the computer system. However this can be remedied a couple of ways namely by changing in the preamble the word "having" with either storing or encoded with . Claims 7-9, and 15 also have this deficiency due to their dependency on claim 6.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-5 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Art Unit: 2183

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 6-9 and 15 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
